Community Youth Orchestra
of Southern California

“A Concert in June”

3 June 2007 – 3:30pm

Irvine High School Auditorium
4321 Walnut Ave.
Irvine, CA 92604

The Community Youth Orchestra of Southern California (CYOSC) is an independent non-profit music organization based in Irvine, California, USA, that offers ensemble training and performance of classical music for students throughout the Orange County community, in a full symphonic orchestra format. We provide community service opportunities, fundraise for charity causes, and promote cultural exchange. Deeply committed to the musical development of our students, a unique rehearsal and performance environment pairs CYOSC members with young artists from Orange County's finest university programs together in an intensive, comprehensive, and time-efficient orchestral experience.

Music Director

GENE WIE appears internationally as a conductor, performer, and teacher of violin, viola, clarinet, and saxophone. His extensive ensemble experience has seen him in concert throughout the United States and abroad in Australia, New Zealand, England, France, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Slovenia, Croatia, and the Czech Republic. He is Concertmaster of the Fullerton Chamber Orchestra, a founding member of the Elegie Quartet, and a faculty member of St. Margaret's Episcopal School and the Orange County High School of the Arts, serving in numerous capacities as orchestra director, chamber music coach, and lecturer (technology, history, theory). As Vice President of MusiShare Inc., he is part of a industry-leading team that develops technology-driven music education solutions. In the summer he performs with and coaches chamber ensembles at Arrowbear Music Camp (California), the Viola Workout (Colorado), and ChamberArtsFest (USA/France). A former software engineer turned musician, Gene earned B.S. Information and Computer Science and M.F.A. Music degrees from the University of California, Irvine.

Young Artist Coaches

CYOSC is extremely grateful to have the assistance of numerous young artist performers from school programs all over California working with our students, who provide a supportive learning environment for your younger players, rehearsing and performing with them side-by-side.
