The Community Youth Orchestra of Southern California (CYOSC) is an independent not-for-profit community arts organization based in Irvine, California, USA. We offer ensemble training and performance for students throughout the Orange County area, including a full symphony, chamber orchestra, and summer orchestra workshop. Deeply committed to the musical development of our students as well as the musical culture of our community, a unique rehearsal and performance environment pairs CYOSC students with young artist performers from Orange County's finest university programs together in an intensive, comprehensive, and time-efficient orchestral experience.

About the Conductor

GENE WIE appears internationally as a conductor, performer, and teacher of violin, viola, and clarinet. Over the past decade he has presented numerous orchestral and chamber music concerts throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe. A devoted mentor to many Orange County music students, he is recognized for his focus on developing strong basic skills for players of all ages. In addition to his work with the Community Youth Orchestra of Southern California, he is Orchestra Director at St. Margaret's Episcopal School in San Juan Capistrano, and Assistant Director of Orchestras at University High School in Irvine. As Vice President of MusiShare Inc., he is part of a industry-leading team that develops technology-driven music education solutions. He is on the faculty of numerous summer music festivals including Arrowbear Music Camp (California), the Viola Workout (Colorado), and ChamberArtsFest (USA/France). A former software engineer turned musician, Gene holds B.S. Information and Computer Science and M.F.A. Music degrees from the University of California, Irvine.

Young Artist Coaches

CYOSC is extremely grateful to have the assistance of numerous young artist performers working with our students. Our coaches include professional musicians, music students, and enthusiasts who provide a supportive learning environment for your younger players, rehearsing and performing with them side-by-side.
